Mission Statement

The Sherwood Valley Band of Pomo Indians, a federally recognized Tribe, has established the Housing Guidelines to enable the Tribe to better serve the housing needs of the Tribal members by establishing effective, fair and consistent policies and procedures.

The Tribe will endeavor:

1. To alleviate the financial burden on Tribal members renting homes and purchasing homes.
2. To enable Tribal members to rent homes that better meet their family's needs in the following ways:
 - a. The home is adequate for family size and composition.
 - b. The home is both decent and affordable.
3. To meet the housing needs of a greater number of Tribal members by maximizing the available funding.
4. To improve and rehabilitate existing Tribal members' homes.
5. To provide one-time emergency housing assistance.
